JAMAICA YOUTH AMBASSADORS PROGRAMME	9

OVERVIEW

The Jamaica Youth Ambassadors Programme (JAYAP) was established in 2000 as a strategy to promote youth advocacy and facilitate youth participation in decision-making processes. Since 2000, the JAYAP has produced a number of youth leaders, who have offered representation of Jamaican youth issues at the national, regional and international levels. The 2017 selection of Jamaica Youth Ambassadors incorporates recommendations made in a JAYAP Programme Review conducted at the end of tenure for the last cohort.

PORTFOLIO AREAS

For 2017-2019, six young persons aged 27 years or younger will be appointed as Jamaica Youth Ambassadors (YAs).

The breakdown of portfolio areas and assigned YAs is as follows:

- CARICOM
- Commonwealth
- United Nations General Assembly

Regional and international obligations to CARICOM and the Commonwealth necessitate the appointment of youth ambassadors to these bodies. Association with both the CARICOM and Commonwealth Youth Programmes have borne fruit over the years, particularly through policy and programme recommendations for key youth development challenges and issues such as youth unemployment and entrepreneurship.

The portfolio - YA: United Nations General Assembly, provides an opportunity for Jamaican youth to have a voice at one of the highest levels of decision making in the world. Attendance at the General Assembly affords the opportunity for Jamaican youth to actively shape the development of international frameworks for action. The YA:UN is also responsible for promoting and advocating for action on the Post 2015 Agenda, and the organization of initiatives to commemorate International Youth Day and Global Youth Service Day.

APPLICATION PROCESS

An open call for applicants for the Jamaica Youth Ambassadors Programme will be held during Youth Month 2016 from November 7-30. Interested youth will be asked to submit their application via an online platform.

JOB DESCRIPTION: JAMAICA YOUTH AMBASSADORS

YAs have the responsibility of advocating for and educating young people as per issues defined through consultations at CARICOM Youth Ambassadors Programme, the Commonwealth Youth Programme and the UN General Assembly. Second, these YAs should seek to bring national issues to the attention of policy makers and planners at the Regional/international level through the coordination/collation of data relating to youth issues at the national level.

Jamaica Youth Ambassador Responsibilities

The responsibilities of YAs include (but are not limited to) the following:

- Coordinate/collate desk reviews and consultations on specific youth development issues;
- Provide analysis of national and international youth development trends, challenges and opportunities;
- Provide recommendations for policy and programme development;
- Provide support to national youth organisations (e.g. National Youth Council), through the dissemination of research data and other information relating to the YA's area of focus, to inform position papers and programme/project development;
- Regularly contribute to national discourse on youth development issues, through national and local media, public forums, consultations and other relevant avenues;
- Bring national issues to the attention of policy makers and planners at the Regional/international level through the coordination/collation of data relating to youth issues at the national level;
- Partner with relevant government ministries/agencies/departments towards effecting key aspects of the development agenda of these institutions, through representing the views of youth, and mobilising youth support.
- Provide support to Youth Information Centres (YICs) through facilitating empowerment sessions;
- Maintain links with Jamaican young people and remain an active member of a youth group;

- Carry out a total of 12 social intervention sessions with young people to pass on their knowledge and training (At least one session per year must be held at each YIC);
- Take part in the planning and execution of major Youth Division and other Government youth development activities including the Youth Ambassador Installation Ceremony, Prime Minister’s Youth Awards and Youth Month (November).
- Serving as Dean of JAYAP for a period not exceeding 4 (four) months in order to undertake specific initiatives and assist with the overall coordination of the Programme.

Attendance and Participation in Youth Ambassador Activities

Youth Ambassadors are required to attend and participate in the following events:

- An initial meeting and possible residential training;
- Meetings of all Youth Ambassadors every other month; and
- End of Term De-briefing Meeting.

Outputs

- YAs are required to submit a draft work plan for the year with projected outputs and activities
- Monthly work plans to follow – Due on the first of each month with an accompanying summary of completed activities for the previous month.
- YAs are to submit a written report to Youth Division within two weeks of any mission being undertaken.
- Each YA is to produce an annual report detailing their activities in the previous year and their plans for the following year.
- Each Youth Ambassador is to hold at least 6 training sessions / interventions with various youth groups. A proposal for these sessions must be submitted to the Youth Division one month after their appointment, a short report must be submitted within two weeks after each session.

Time Commitment

a. Social Intervention Sessions

- 1 day per month delivery of social intervention session (this will sometimes take place in the week and sometimes on a weekend).
- 1 day per month preparation for social intervention session.

b. Training / JAYAP Activities

- 3 days initial training.
- 6 update sessions per year.
- Approximately 4 days in November for participation in Youth Month Activities.

c. Missions

- Up to 2 weeks away from Jamaica for participation in international event (approximately once per year).
- 1 week preparation for each mission (this will include a visit to the Youth Division office and time taken to prepare any necessary speeches or reports).
- Up to one week post-mission reporting (this will include a visit to Youth Division, preparation of mission report and taking part in any related meetings).

Management

The Youth Division undertakes to manage the activities of the Youth Ambassadors through:

- Providing support for interventions with young people
- Undertaking travel arrangements
- Organising occasions for youth ambassadors to meet and share experiences

Ambassador outputs will be managed by the following persons:

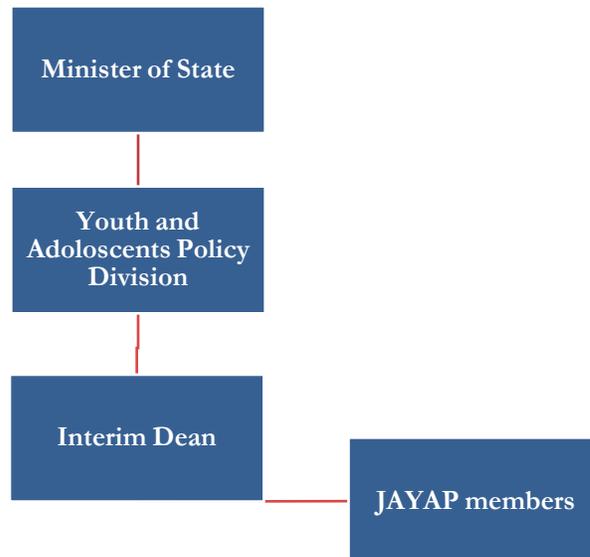

Ms. Kara Knight – Programme Development Specialist – kara.knight@moey.gov.jm

Mr. Kevon Campbell – Programme Development Specialist – kevon.campbell@moey.gov.jm

With oversight from:

Ms. Michelle Small Bartley – Senior Director – Youth Division

Reporting Structure

Non-Performance of Duties

Before a young person can be formally appointed as a Youth Ambassador, it will be necessary for them to sign these Terms of Reference, stating that they commit to undertaking the duties listed above and officially receive the Instrument of Office during the Installation Ceremony.

Should a Youth Ambassador fail to carry out their duties, they will receive a formal warning from the Senior Director of Youth Division.

Should a further non-performance of duties occur, the young person will be removed from the programme and gazetted in the media.
